

A pure cream of tartar powder.

Cleveland's Baking Powder

"Pure" and "Sure."

The true composition is published on every label, information not given by other manufacturers. You know what you are eating when you use Cleveland's.

Norrman & Moore
FIRE INSURANCE
120 Wyoming Avenue

DON'T
Have your COLLARS starched in the old way, when you can have them done with soft, pliable Buttons for TWO CENTS EACH.

Lackawanna
THE LAUNDRY

New and Very Choice
Line of JET Trimmings

Mears & Hagen
415 Lacka. Ave.

If you want
Carpets, Draperies,
Wall Paper or Window
Shades, come to us.

We have a full line of goods, and our prices are very low.

Williams & McNulty
127 Wyoming Ave.

To my friends: I hereby announce that I will be a candidate for the nomination of district attorney, before the Republican County convention.

JOHN R. JONES.

CITY NOTES.

—Tribune readers leaving for their summer vacation can have their favorite paper sent to them without extra cost, by notifying this office of the desired changes in the paper's address.

This morning the Thirtieth regiment left for the front.

There is a letter at this office for the Scranton Athletic club from the Institute Foot Ball team of Newark, N. J.

A lamp too close to the ceiling set fire to the ceiling of the room at the corner of the street.

Tomorrow's excursion to Glen Onoko by the Erie will be one of the best of the season. There will be music by Bauer's band and a full orchestra.

Patrick Flaherty, of this city, was seriously injured in Providence, R. I., last evening. He was employed in the railroad yards as a brakeman when injured.

James L. Klein on Saturday brought suit to recover $1,000 for defamation of character, against Mary Langdon. Anna Dudenko brought a similar action against Susan Paine for $5,000.

Archibald Cranston and Emma Jones, of Avoca, and John Conboy, of Greenwood, and Julia O'Donnell, of Scranton, were married at the clerk of the courts office Saturday, by Alderman Fuller.

The exchanges at the Scranton Clearing house during the week were: Monday, $137,867.75; Tuesday, $110,318.07; Wednesday, $120,118.77; Thursday, $132,416.79; Friday, $108,990.42; Saturday, $84,204.15.

Two names which were omitted from the list of the Minooka fire are Thomas Laffey and Mrs. Michael Cusick. Laffey's furniture was totally ruined and he estimates his loss at $60. Mrs. Michael Cusick says the amount of damage done to her building at $120.

This morning in St. David's hall, on the West Side, a meeting will be held to consider the subject of the American vis-à-vis to dine with him the following day at his splendid mansion in the neighborhood.

PARTY'S MILWAUKEE BEER, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.

SCRANTONIANS ABROAD.

Douglas Robinson and T. H. Jones dine with Sir John Jones Jenkins.

Providence is given by the Cambria Daily Leader to a unique service held Sunday, Aug. 12, at Capel Gomer, South Wales, when the two distinguished American divines, Rev. Dr. Fred Evans and his brother, Rev. John Evans, M. A., preached to a large congregation which included the celebrated Welshman, Sir John Jones Jenkins of the Grange, and Councillors E. E. Robinson and T. H. Jones, of this city, who are now on a visit in Wales.

At the conclusion of the service the Welsh knight invited the American visitors to dine with him the following day at his splendid mansion in the neighborhood.

The $40,000 School House for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few lots left at a low price.

ARTHUR FROTHINGHAM, Office, Theater Lobby.

CITIZEN OF HEAVEN

Excellent Discourse by Rev. W. J. Ford, of Green Ridge Baptist Church.

KNOWLEDGE, FAME AND WEALTH

They Do Not Constitute the Highest Good—Examples of Ambitious Men. Nothing Lasting on Earth—The Privileges of Heaven—Those Who Enter It Are Members of the Family of God.

Rev. W. J. Ford yesterday resumed duties at the Green Ridge Baptist church after his return from an extended wedding tour, and in the morning preached to a large congregation.

Mr. Ford took his text from Luke x:20, "Howbeit in this rejoice not that the spirits are subject unto you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." He said:

"Some weeks before these words were spoken Jesus had appointed the seventy and sent them forth two by two. They were directed to go throughout all Judea 'healing the sick' and proclaiming the approach of the Kingdom of God. In obedience to the command they had proceeded, taking neither scrip nor purse, and yet their needs had been supplied. They had met with success beyond their wildest dreams, and upon their return exclaimed, 'Even the devils were subject to us in Thy name.'"

Jesus renewed their commission and entrusted them with still greater authority, and so long as they served under His banner they were promised that nothing should in any wise hurt them. It would seem that there was in this sufficient cause for rejoicing. They had power to heal diseases, they could relieve those who were suffering from demoniacal possession; they had absolute freedom from thought of physical danger, even the poisonous serpents and the deadly scorpions being powerless to harm them. But Jesus pointed out, when they showed elation over their past success, that all this there was no cause for rejoicing, but the real and true cause for rejoicing was that their names were written in heaven.

THE HIGHEST GOOD.

"No wonder that Jesus bade these disciples rejoice that their names were written in heaven; no other good can compare with this. In all our calculations there is a very great thing that there is a life beyond and everything should be considered in its relation to both this life and the next. In searching for the highest good we should seek something which shall be good then as well as now, and if we find something surpassing all else in both lives that certainly is the thing to be sought as the chief source of joy."

"I am not saying anything disparagingly of education; we can none of us gain too much, but if we have gained nothing else in this life but education we have not gained very much after all. There is a very little of the world about us that we can know and I suppose that a large part of the little we do know is not true. We laugh at the foolish theories of the past generations but what evidence have we that our grand children will not laugh at us still more than we now laugh at the childish ideas of the wise men of the last century. No scientific work ten years old can be accepted as an authority in all particulars today. The books of the present generation will have little value to coming generations except as curiosities."

"The character of fame was uncertain. Men have built up great empires and even though they may be a strong personality hold them together during their own lives they are broken up under the rule of their successors. Alexander weeping for another world to conquer is a familiar illustration that lust for conquest can never be satisfied. If unlimited power and brilliant achievements were ever a cause for rejoicing it would seem that they were in his case. Which would be of most importance to Napoleon of today the fact that in the annals of France his name stands as the first emperor or that his name should be written in heaven the child of God?"

THERE IS A LIFE BEYOND.

"Men so often forget that there is a life beyond this, and in deciding upon the best plan of living they should take into account both of these lives. The future life should receive just so much more serious attention as the eternity over which it extends is longer than the years of this life. Far better that the name should stand written upon the lamb's book of life than it should appear written high upon the perishable records of written glory."

"Nor is the possession of great wealth to be compared with the possession of a name in heaven. With what can a man buy back his own soul? There is nothing, if the soul is lost. All the wealth of the world prove insufficient to bring it back again. Such was the case of Dives when all his wealth was not sufficient to buy the privilege of having Lazarus dip his finger in water to cool his parched tongue. None of the things which men compare with citizenship in the kingdom of God are to be considered as evil in themselves. They are an evil only when they interfere with the attainment of a higher blessing."

"Those whose names are written in heaven enjoy privileges which are denied others. They are members of the family of God, and as such are entitled to all the privileges of children. They are no longer under law, all the privileges of which we can conceive as belonging to a child in the home, the Christian possesses in his relation to God."

COAL COMPANY'S TROUBLE.

Sheriff Directed to Sell Its Property to Satisfy Mortgage.

Attorney C. H. Welles on Saturday placed in the hands of Sheriff Fahey papers directing him to sell the real estate of the Rushbrook Coal company to satisfy mortgage for $11,919.50.

The mortgages are held by Edward Jones, James J. Williams, Margaret Williams, John J. Simpson and Martha Simpson, executors of Andrew Simpson, deceased; John J. Simpson, sole surviving executor of William Simpson, deceased, and James C. Eaton. James S. Jenkins is president of the Rushbrook Coal company and E. A. Corry its secretary.

The execution is based upon a writ of seque facias suo mortgage which was issued some time ago, and in response to the service of which no appearance has been entered. The Rushbrook holdings are all in the upper portion of the county.

AT THE THEATERS

"This evening the Academy of Music will open its doors to the public for the first time this season, when George Thatcher's company will present 'About Gotham.' The house is lighted up on Saturday night and representatives of the press inspected it upon the invitation of Manager Burgunder. The house is greatly changed and presents a handsome and attractive appearance; one of the most noticeable features being the homelike coziness. The stereo-relief decorations in the entrance way, lobby and auditorium are beautiful and the effect under the glare of the gaslight is pleasing. The aisles are wider and handsomely carpeted, and the seats have been further apart and built upon raised platforms. The painting is bright and the scenery new. The proscenium arch is set off with an idyllic painting, giving very materially to the beauty of the stage decorations. Two new sets of scenery will grace the stage, and two new sets of parlor furniture, one of white and the other of light blue trimming."

↑ ↑ ↑

"About Gotham," with which George Thatcher will reopen the Academy to-night is a new musical farce comedy, similar in construction and, but entirely new in subject, story, location and idea to "Tuxedo." With the knowledge gained by experience Mr. Thatcher was able to advise the author, Harry W. Emmett, in his general construction of the play, to the end that the musical features are consistently introduced, and form a part of the plot, such has been the marked success of all of Mr. Thatcher's productions that it is safe to predict that "About Gotham" will meet with equal favor.

Tuesday evening that popular and very successful comic opera, "The Fencing Master," will be seen at the Academy of Music. The story of the opera relates the adventures of a young girl, Francesca, whose father is a fencing master, and brings his daughter up as a boy and teaches her the art of fencing. When her father goes to Venice to become chief of a band of bravos, Francesca takes his place as master at arms. She loves Fortunio, the rightful heir to the throne of Milan. The heir apparent believes her to be a boy, a belief which is shared by all, when the usurping duke and his household magician scheme to remove Fortunio by sending him to Venice on a perilous mission. Francesca accompanies him in order to share his danger. The engagement is for only one night, and seats are now on sale at the box office.

When the great historical musical spectacle, "War and Peace," is produced at the Frothingham next Tuesday afternoon and evening by F. N. Jones, of New York, and his famous vocal soloists, etc., four very fine vocal soloists

MISS LOUISE ENGEL CONTRALTO.

Will be heard, among whom are Miss Louise Engel, a young contralto singer of distinctive merit and remarkable sweetness, richness and purity of voice. She is young and fresh and C. C. Ferguson, a famous New York tenor, and Bowman Ralston, a deep resonant basso from the Carl Rosa Opera company in England. The solo and concerted portions of the program are therefore sure to be of the highest character.

Wood's College of Business and Short-hand.

The Best Week. So many never came before. Parents, guardians, young men, young women, ruddy faced boys and thirty girls. The whole faculty busy, describing the work, showing the rooms and writing scholarships.

The Opening on Monday. Students from a distance, from adjoining towns and from all parts of the city will enter on Monday.

The Reception. In the evening a reception will be given to all the old students and to those who wish to enter this term. Many invitations were returned because of change of residence. Let this be your invitation. A souvenir for all.

Free Tuition. A large number of our old students who brought scholarships from us have been offered free tuition in another school. Think it over. Is it generous or selfish? Will it pay?

A Large and Competent Faculty. Shall an institution stand still? Brains are the proper ornament for the top of a man. For culture, practical experience and pedagogic skill our teachers excel.

A $5,000 fund is in the hands of the management to aid worthy young men and women who must pay their tuition on the installment plan.

Young people who can furnish good recommendations as to character and thrift are invited to become the beneficiaries of this fund.

We invite you to visit us.

F. E. WOOD, President.

COPIING books and presses.

PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

Dr. Gibbons,

of New York city, will be in his Scranton office, 441 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

DIED.

COYLE—In Scranton, Aug. 25, Mrs. Anne Coyle, at the home of her nephew, J. R. Burnett, of Penn avenue, aged 86 years. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning when a requiem high mass will be celebrated in St. Paul's church, Green Ridge. The remains will be taken to Carbondale on the Delaware and Hudson train leaving Green Ridge at 12:30.

UP IN ORANGE COUNTY

Scrantonians Enjoy the Sights and Hospitality of Middletown.

SCRANTON PUSH IN YORK STATE

Party of City Officials, Militiamen and Newspaper Representatives from the Electric City Witness the Opening of Midway Park as Guests of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company—Royally Treated by Their Hosts and the Citizens in General.

Cards bearing the words, "Invited guest of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company" will be preserved by a number of Scrantonians as souvenirs of one of the most pleasant outings they ever enjoyed.

This outing was a trip to Middletown, N. Y., on Saturday to witness the opening of Midway park and to inspect the workings of the new electric road at that place. The park and road are owned by a company composed mostly of Scrantonians. The president is J. C. Blinsholts, of Paterson, N. J.; Marie J. Wightman, of this city, is vice president and engineer; E. G. Wightman is secretary and Captain Rockwell is general manager and treasurer. Dr. B. H. Thorp is also a stockholder. Ten of the men who operate the cars are also Scrantonians. These same gentlemen who compose the Middletown company are identified with the Scranton Rapid Transit company, which is about to construct a railway in this city, and their object in arranging Saturday's outing was, as Captain Rockwell put it, "to show Scrantonians that Scranton men can build an electric railway that will compare quite favorably with any road that Philadelphia is now operating in Scranton."

SPLENDID STREET RAILWAY.

It can be said with assurance that the Middletown-Goshen road is, in the opinion of those who inspected it Saturday and who are capable of expressing an opinion of worth on the subject, one of the very finest pieces of street railway in existence to-day in the United States. It is eight miles in length, and besides covering the central part of the city will extend to Goshen six miles away through a beautiful stretch of that most beautiful of farming country, Orange county. Half way between the two towns is situated Midway park, a plot which, it is assumed, is intended for that purpose and which is $30,000 of the traction company's money has supplied with all the artificial accompaniments that go to make up a complete park. At present that is the terminus of the road. The park comprises five acres of woodland and is located on the Waikiki river, an extension of the Hudson. One portion of the grounds is a conical hill surmounted by a high observatory from which a grand view is obtainable. Electric launches which were used at the World's fair and row boats on the Hudson, ply the waters of the Waikiki. Expositions for dancing, refreshments, etc., are beautiful in design and in every way convenient. Nothing that would tend to pleasure of excursionists have been overlooked and all in all as an excursion resort it can not be surpassed.

The party which went from this city was treated royally by Captain Rockwell, Mr. Wightman and other members of the company, and in fact by the citizens of Middletown in general. Among these latter who took an especial interest in making the trip most pleasurable were Herman Ludington, the Ontario and Western representative at that place.

MEMBERS OF THE PARTY.

Those who made up the party were: M. T. Lavelle, city clerk; John P. Mahon, common council clerk; W. F. McLean, deputy council clerk. Common councilmen P. H. Golden, Simon Thomas, John E. Regan, J. W. McLean, E. E. Wenzel, Morgan Sweeney, P. J. Nease, J. P. Nease, P. J. Hickey, Thomas Norton, Select Councilmen W. J. Thomas, M. E. Clark, John E. Ronch, J. F. Schwank, Alex. T. Connell, County Commissioner S. W. Roberts, Casimir Hartman, Charles Graff, Jacob Geiger and Election Andrew Carlin, of the Scranton Traction company. The newspaper representatives were J. J. Campbell and D. J. Moriarty, Times; M. J. O'Toole, Republican; Henry Singer, Express; F. E. Mitchell and T. J. Duffy, TRIBUNE.

Company H, of Providence, Captain Rockwell's command, who went as guests of the Twenty-fourth regiment of Middletown was made up as follows:

Captain—W. B. Rockwell.
First Lieutenant—E. G. Corwin.
Second Lieutenant—S. W. Corwin.
First sergeant—J. W. Benjamin.
Second sergeant—John E. Huff.
Third sergeant—J. W. Webster.
Fourth sergeant—B. McMahon.
Fifth sergeant—T. Williams.
Corporals—Thomas Perry, George Short, P. F. Saitry, G. C. Rogers, C. T. Williams, W. Rhule, G. L. Cutler.

Musicians—Samuel Pritchard, G. T. Shuckler.

Privates—B. Banfield, A. L. Brown, A. H. Corwin, W. M. Coleman, M. Connolly, H. W. Davis, A. Baker, P. Fahringer, J. Fahringer, H. Gardner, W. G. Gwyn, H. E. Hephurn, O. W. Hughes, G. Jones, M. E. Lewis, L. Morgan, A. H. Mills, P. Parry, T. J. Phillips, James Reid, J. L. Reynolds, J. A. Sykes, O. Simpson, H. Stevens, H. D. Williams, H. A. Westcott.

Color Sergeant Harry J. Herimans, Major G. H. Whitney and Sergeant Major Albert Davis, of the Second Regiment, N. G. P., a detachment of eight pieces of the Thirtieth Regiment Drum corps, commanded by Samuel Pritchard, also accompanied the soldier contingent. Bauer's band of twenty-eight pieces went along and played dances and concert music at the park during the afternoon and evening and also led the street parade in the morning.

The excursion train which carried the party to Middletown over the Ontario and Western left Scranton at 6:30 a. m. and arrived in Middletown at 11 o'clock. It consisted of three cars and was personally looked after by Passenger Agent Thomas F. Pliffoch. The crew was composed of Conductor Arthur Day, Brakeman E. E. Edell, Engineer Arthur Gilderale and Fireman S. Franz. Returning the train left Middletown Sunday morning at 8:05 arriving in Scranton at 1 o'clock p. m.

REMAINS BURIED TWICE.

William Evans, Who Was Killed, Given Two Funerals.

William Evans, the Scranton man who was struck and killed by a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train near Wyoming on Monday night, had his remains buried at Middletown on Saturday and re-buried Saturday afternoon.

The story is quite a sad one. It seems that Evans had a son, also named William Evans, who resided in Plymouth. The son read an account of the finding and identification of the body, but never for an instant supposed that it was his father. On Thursday the son learned by letter from Scranton that the man was his father, and upon communicating with the authorities found that the remains had been buried at Retreat.

Securing the services of an undertaker, the son went to Retreat and had the remains exhumed. On Thursday the son learned by letter from Scranton that the man was his father, and upon communicating with the authorities found that the remains had been buried at Retreat.

POINTS ON POLITICS.

The Democratic county convention of Luzerne county will be held in Landmesser's hall tomorrow.

Attorney John G. McAlister, of Danvers, the latest person named as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the state legislature in the First district.

Attorneys John R. Jones, A. J. Colborn, Jr., George M. Watson and J. Elliot have been conducting an earnest and energetic campaign for the Republican nomination for district attorney.

Saturday afternoon delegates were elected to attend the Democratic convention that will be held Tuesday to nominate a candidate for legislature in the Second district, which comprises the city wards from the Seventh to the Twentieth inclusive. A list of names was cast for the candidates for delegates and little interest was manifested in the primaries. It is almost certain that John P. Quinnan will be the candidate named.

Tuesday, Sept. 11, at 10 o'clock a. m. is the time fixed for holding the Democratic county convention. At a meeting of the county committee on Saturday it was decided to hold the convention on that date. It was also suggested by the county committee that the senatorial committee meet and name the same day for the senatorial convention. Many of the prominent members of the party are expected at the date at which the convention is held. They argue that tomorrow is the date on which the convention should have been held. With the convention on Sept. 11 it is their opinion that the committee which will have the committee in charge cannot be organized and in readiness for effective work before Oct. 1, which will leave too short a period in which to conduct an effective campaign. While that is the opinion of some of the shrewd workers in the party there was quite a contrary effort made to have the convention held one week later.

IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Two more vagrants were arrested at the Ontario and Western freight house yesterday morning by Officers Gurrell and Peters and Special Officer Griffiths. They will break stone.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning Officer Saul arrested Edward Walsh and Michael Kelly on lower Penn avenue for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Walsh accused Kelly of stealing his watch, but at the hearing said that he had given it in his palm's hands for safe keeping. They were discharged with a small fine.

On a warrant issued by Alderman Fitzsimmons the quarters on lower Lackawanna avenue occupied by Jessie Holler were raided yesterday morning by Sergeant Dieter and Officers Boland, Mohr and Haug. One man, whose mother had entered complaint against the house and two women, were arrested. They were fined $5 apiece.

Officer Dyer early yesterday morning saw James Fitzsimmons acting in a suspicious manner at the intersection of Jackson and Scranton streets. A window in the neighborhood had been smashed with a stone by one of a party of three a short time previous to "Thomas" arrest and as the description tallied with that of one of the trio he was suspected of the act. Yesterday morning he was fined $10.

Conway House, 132 and 134 Penn Ave., is where you will always find good service and courteous treatment, the table is always supplied with the best in the market. Transient and local trade solicited.

OXFORD, Bagster, International and family Bibles. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

Buy the Weber and get the best. At Guernsey Bros.

A LARGE line of new books and novels at half price. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

WAKE UP
Buy one of Berry's Best
Alarm Clocks
ONLY $1

BERRY
THE JEWELER,
417 Lacka. Avenue.

Best Sets of Teeth, $8.00
Including the painless extracting of teeth by an entirely new process.

S. C. Snyder, D.D.S.
125 WYOMING AVE.

Direct from orchard daily.

Wholesale and Retail.

Prices are very low and fruit is fine.

E. G. COURSEN,
429 Lacka. Ave.

UP IN ORANGE COUNTY

Scrantonians Enjoy the Sights and Hospitality of Middletown.

SCRANTON PUSH IN YORK STATE

Party of City Officials, Militiamen and Newspaper Representatives from the Electric City Witness the Opening of Midway Park as Guests of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company—Royally Treated by Their Hosts and the Citizens in General.

Cards bearing the words, "Invited guest of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company" will be preserved by a number of Scrantonians as souvenirs of one of the most pleasant outings they ever enjoyed.

This outing was a trip to Middletown, N. Y., on Saturday to witness the opening of Midway park and to inspect the workings of the new electric road at that place. The park and road are owned by a company composed mostly of Scrantonians. The president is J. C. Blinsholts, of Paterson, N. J.; Marie J. Wightman, of this city, is vice president and engineer; E. G. Wightman is secretary and Captain Rockwell is general manager and treasurer. Dr. B. H. Thorp is also a stockholder. Ten of the men who operate the cars are also Scrantonians. These same gentlemen who compose the Middletown company are identified with the Scranton Rapid Transit company, which is about to construct a railway in this city, and their object in arranging Saturday's outing was, as Captain Rockwell put it, "to show Scrantonians that Scranton men can build an electric railway that will compare quite favorably with any road that Philadelphia is now operating in Scranton."

SPLENDID STREET RAILWAY.

It can be said with assurance that the Middletown-Goshen road is, in the opinion of those who inspected it Saturday and who are capable of expressing an opinion of worth on the subject, one of the very finest pieces of street railway in existence to-day in the United States. It is eight miles in length, and besides covering the central part of the city will extend to Goshen six miles away through a beautiful stretch of that most beautiful of farming country, Orange county. Half way between the two towns is situated Midway park, a plot which, it is assumed, is intended for that purpose and which is $30,000 of the traction company's money has supplied with all the artificial accompaniments that go to make up a complete park. At present that is the terminus of the road. The park comprises five acres of woodland and is located on the Waikiki river, an extension of the Hudson. One portion of the grounds is a conical hill surmounted by a high observatory from which a grand view is obtainable. Electric launches which were used at the World's fair and row boats on the Hudson, ply the waters of the Waikiki. Expositions for dancing, refreshments, etc., are beautiful in design and in every way convenient. Nothing that would tend to pleasure of excursionists have been overlooked and all in all as an excursion resort it can not be surpassed.

The party which went from this city was treated royally by Captain Rockwell, Mr. Wightman and other members of the company, and in fact by the citizens of Middletown in general. Among these latter who took an especial interest in making the trip most pleasurable were Herman Ludington, the Ontario and Western representative at that place.

MEMBERS OF THE PARTY.

Those who made up the party were: M. T. Lavelle, city clerk; John P. Mahon, common council clerk; W. F. McLean, deputy council clerk. Common councilmen P. H. Golden, Simon Thomas, John E. Regan, J. W. McLean, E. E. Wenzel, Morgan Sweeney, P. J. Nease, J. P. Nease, P. J. Hickey, Thomas Norton, Select Councilmen W. J. Thomas, M. E. Clark, John E. Ronch, J. F. Schwank, Alex. T. Connell, County Commissioner S. W. Roberts, Casimir Hartman, Charles Graff, Jacob Geiger and Election Andrew Carlin, of the Scranton Traction company. The newspaper representatives were J. J. Campbell and D. J. Moriarty, Times; M. J. O'Toole, Republican; Henry Singer, Express; F. E. Mitchell and T. J. Duffy, TRIBUNE.

Company H, of Providence, Captain Rockwell's command, who went as guests of the Twenty-fourth regiment of Middletown was made up as follows:

Captain—W. B. Rockwell.
First Lieutenant—E. G. Corwin.
Second Lieutenant—S. W. Corwin.
First sergeant—J. W. Benjamin.
Second sergeant—John E. Huff.
Third sergeant—J. W. Webster.
Fourth sergeant—B. McMahon.
Fifth sergeant—T. Williams.
Corporals—Thomas Perry, George Short, P. F. Saitry, G. C. Rogers, C. T. Williams, W. Rhule, G. L. Cutler.

Musicians—Samuel Pritchard, G. T. Shuckler.

Privates—B. Banfield, A. L. Brown, A. H. Corwin, W. M. Coleman, M. Connolly, H. W. Davis, A. Baker, P. Fahringer, J. Fahringer, H. Gardner, W. G. Gwyn, H. E. Hephurn, O. W. Hughes, G. Jones, M. E. Lewis, L. Morgan, A. H. Mills, P. Parry, T. J. Phillips, James Reid, J. L. Reynolds, J. A. Sykes, O. Simpson, H. Stevens, H. D. Williams, H. A. Westcott.

Color Sergeant Harry J. Herimans, Major G. H. Whitney and Sergeant Major Albert Davis, of the Second Regiment, N. G. P., a detachment of eight pieces of the Thirtieth Regiment Drum corps, commanded by Samuel Pritchard, also accompanied the soldier contingent. Bauer's band of twenty-eight pieces went along and played dances and concert music at the park during the afternoon and evening and also led the street parade in the morning.

The excursion train which carried the party to Middletown over the Ontario and Western left Scranton at 6:30 a. m. and arrived in Middletown at 11 o'clock. It consisted of three cars and was personally looked after by Passenger Agent Thomas F. Pliffoch. The crew was composed of Conductor Arthur Day, Brakeman E. E. Edell, Engineer Arthur Gilderale and Fireman S. Franz. Returning the train left Middletown Sunday morning at 8:05 arriving in Scranton at 1 o'clock p. m.

REMAINS BURIED TWICE.

William Evans, Who Was Killed, Given Two Funerals.

William Evans, the Scranton man who was struck and killed by a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train near Wyoming on Monday night, had his remains buried at Middletown on Saturday and re-buried Saturday afternoon.

The story is quite a sad one. It seems that Evans had a son, also named William Evans, who resided in Plymouth. The son read an account of the finding and identification of the body, but never for an instant supposed that it was his father. On Thursday the son learned by letter from Scranton that the man was his father, and upon communicating with the authorities found that the remains had been buried at Retreat.

Securing the services of an undertaker, the son went to Retreat and had the remains exhumed. On Thursday the son learned by letter from Scranton that the man was his father, and upon communicating with the authorities found that the remains had been buried at Retreat.

POINTS ON POLITICS.

The Democratic county convention of Luzerne county will be held in Landmesser's hall tomorrow.

Attorney John G. McAlister, of Danvers, the latest person named as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the state legislature in the First district.